Sample declaration of raw material and ingredients compliance

To be completed by the manufacturer of each raw material. A single declaration may be completed to cover more than one raw material if appropriate.

Companies wishing to use their own documentation and systems to collate information about animal testing may do so, provided the same questions are addressed. Please contact the Certification Manager with any questions you have concerning your use of these forms or to discuss whether any alternative system that you propose will meet the certification criteria.

Section 3: Raw materials and ingredients

Please list, as requested, the raw materials and/or ingredients supplied to the company named in Section 1. You may refer to the Leaping Bunny Guidance Booklet for definitions of the terms used on this form or clarification on any of the information required.

Please declare the ingredients for each raw material. Feel free to copy page 4 or 5 as required if completing information for more than one material.

Raw material trade name	Tested on animals? (Yes/No)	If yes, date of last test

Ingredients in raw material with EC or CAS number	Tested on animals? (Yes/No)	If yes, date of last test

If the date of the last test for the raw material or its ingredients is later than the fixed cut-off date (FCOD) operated by the company applying for the Leaping Bunny certification, this may flag the ingredient for further investigation. The manufacturer/company may ask you to provide more details about the test.
